Dear Parent/Carer

The English Faculty are pleased to offer your «sondaughter» the opportunity to watch the play The Woman in Black at The Fortune Theatre in London.

The trip will be taking place on Tuesday 16 January 2018. Our students have thoroughly enjoyed studying the text of The Woman in Black and the opportunity to see the play acted on stage will provide valuable contextual information. Whilst it is a hugely enjoyable text it can be challenging to follow the plot's chronological order; watching the play will help the students to further familiarise themselves with the story – leading to a greater understanding - thus higher GCSE marks!

More information regarding the performance can be found at: thewomaninblack.com.

Students will be required to arrive at school normal time and wear school uniform. «HeShe» must attend a safety briefing in the hall before the trip departs at 10am. We will then take the coach from PCSA to the Fortune Theatre to enjoy the play. There will be an opportunity to purchase some lunch/tea before returning to school at 10pm. Students are advised that food is prohibited on the coach.

The full cost of the trip will be £37.00 (which includes theatre ticket, coach hire and insurance). There are limited seats available so places will be offered on a 'first come, first served' basis. A place on the trip is only secured once payment has been made. Please ensure the attached reply slip is returned and payment is made by Friday the 17 November.

Team English is excited to be able to offer this trip – we feel it will be both valuable as a learning tool but also hugely enjoyable.
