Well done to our Year 11s for completing their first week of mock exams. They have been working extremely hard and showing great maturity.

Mock exams will continue next week. As we said in the last bulletin, please support us by ensuring your child arrives promptly at school and is prepared for the examinations with a fully equipped pencil case every day (this includes a calculator).

The full mock exam timetable was emailed to Year 11 parents/carers yesterday and can also be found on our website: <https://pcsa.org.uk/exams>
